Volume 29, Number 3 July 2017 Published Quarterly

Dear Sisters in Christ,

This year we are commemorating the 500th Anniversary of the Reformation and celebrating the 30th Anniversary of the Women of the ELCA. Our 2017 Biennial Convention theme is Reformation! We hope you will join us on Saturday, September 23, 2017 for our Biennial Convention. Registration and refreshments start at 8 am, ending at 3:30 pm.

Please encourage women in your church to attend the convention by extending a personal invitation and offer a ride to a friend and the young women (age 18-35) in your congregation. In this issue are convention and in kind offering information, and all the forms. We are offering four scholarships to attend the convention and two scholarships, $500 each, for students who are pursuing education in Called Ministry, such as Pastor, Deacon or in the area of Youth Ministry in a congregation or ELCA Bible Camp. This year the first scholarship will be award to a woman and the second scholarship could be awarded to either gender.

Each women's church group is entitled to send one voting member (delegate) to the business meeting on Friday evening, September 22 beginning at 5:45 pm. We will be electing a president and vice president by Ecclesiastical Ballot. Other officers to be elected are board members, secretary and treasurer. Please prayerfully consider serving our organization in this capacity. Remember that only one person from a congregation may serve on the board at a time. Voting member registration, Scholarship and Nomination forms are due 8/14/2017. If you have questions, please contact me or any board member.

Grace and Blessings,
Helen Sheahan, SWO President

Conference Gatherings

We hope you found Spring Conference Gatherings inspiring and renewing. Total Gatherings attendance was 215. Thank you to all the conference officers and congregational leaders that helped with the Gatherings. A variety of topics were presented: Caring for God's Creation; Young Adult in Global Mission; Cracked Pots Bible study; Foreign and Native American mission opportunities; scarf tying by Sharing Independent Active Lives (SAIL) and Columbia County's Alzheimer and "Bookworm" programs.

The Barneveld Conference shared activities by their women's groups. They include: children's coloring table at back of the sanctuary; "Therapy Dogs" presentation at a WELCA meeting, Blessing of bikes & bike servicing workshop at the annual bike breakfast for the Horribly Hilly Hundreds bike ride and offering water to riders; Easter Brunch which Confirmation students help serve; and Hope Bear pass along to distressed congregations.

Answers to April reader question: What publications and/or materials do you use from WELCA and How do you use them? Five Points WELCA circles in Blue Rive use the Bible studies in Gather. They go to the WELCA web site for program ideas. They use and urge the younger women to use Bold Café. First English in Platteville uses the summer Gather Bible study at a summer fellowship potluck evening.

July Reader Question – After the Triennial Gathering, let us know what was your most memorial experience. You can let us know by "posting it" at our Biennial Convention or sending an email to welcatrumpeter@gmail.com or a note to Helen Sheahan, 1106 Valley Stream Drive, Madison, WI 53711. We will share them in the October Trumpeter.

Triennial Gathering and Convention

On Thursday, July 13, 73 women from our synod will gather with over 2,400 women from across the United States for the 10th Triennial Gathering in Minneapolis. To identify women from our synod we will wear large synod buttons. We also have post it swap items to share with women from other synods. Thank you to Sue Buetzer for the buttons and Lynn Mehringer with help from many for making 1000 swap items.

These will be handed out on the bus. If you are not riding the bus, look for our board and voting members at the Gathering. Thank you to Sue Buetzer for all her work on the bus transportation.

Five voting members from our synod will travel to Minneapolis on July 10 to help conduct the business of the Women of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America. They are Linda Freitag, Jane Harrison, Lynn Mehringer, Donna Peterson, and Helen Sheahan. Discipleship: All Anew: Ready or Not

No matter how you share or study the three-part summer Bible study written by Kelly Fryer in the Gather Magazine, it has already begun. In the June session of All Anew: Ready or Not: 'Say goodbye to nice', the author addressed the question what truths need to be told in the places where you live, work, worship and play? Are you ready? During our July session 'Stand with the least of least of these', we will attempt to answer the question with whom is God asking you to align yourself? In whose corner are you being called to stand?

Are you ready? The August session 'Upernd the tables' will take us to biblical characters that challenged unjust systems and took action that turned societal norms upside down. Thus, asking us what counter-cultural, justice-making actions are you being called to take? Are you ready? Ladies, whether you hold a one day Bible study retreat during the summer or meet and study month by month it is a time of renewal.

Our Fall Gather Bible study will focus on the Apostles' Creed. Author Julia Seymour, a pastor at Lutheran Church of Hope, Anchorage, Alaska, will share a three-part study which will explore what creeds are for, what we're saying about God and Jesus, what's missing but still might be encompassed and how we can still have questions and ask God to help and guide us. Why is the Apostles' Creed the most basic of our 'ecumenical' documents? And what are our other statements of faith? We hope you not only find the Bible studies interesting and helpful but that you will find a renewal that will fill your personal life. Submitted by Sandy Potter

Jacobson, of Peace Bethlehem in Cobb and Crystal Rock in Fennimore. Kathy has worked in various forms of ministry over the past 20 years, from youth and Christian education coordinator to campus ministry, rural parish ministry to hospice chaplain. Her true passion is writing. She has published 4 books in the Noted! "Faithful fiction" series. She has a husband and 3 "twenty something" children.

We have all gone through difficult times. Why? We ask God. We just want someone to make sense of what is happening in our lives, our world. We don't always get the answers. Maybe we need to be released from having all the answers. It's when we're released that we are able to see there may be more going on here than we realize. More than meets the eye.

Program: Whirlwind by Rob Bell (NOOMA series); During times of trial, we want answers, don't we?

Book Selection: The Shack by WM. Paul Young

Immanuel Lutheran Church Women of Waupun, WI are a very busy and active group of ladies.

One of the major ways we serve our Lord is through our work for Lutheran World Relief. We made 213 quilts this past year. We also assembled 44 personal care kits, 37 baby care kits, 48 school kits, and sent soap. The quilters also sent baby quilts to PAVE and Solutions House which are shelters for abused women and children. We collect monies to ship the quilts and kits also. We are also active in our community to help others. We host a birthday party at the Christian Home for the elderly, serve meals at the Community Table (this is a free meal served at our food pantry), collect items for our local food pantry, participate in World Day of Prayer, serve funeral lunches at our church, have a Thankoffering Service with gathering of monetary gifts and have a prayer chain to accept prayer requests. Two very important summer projects for our women are to help make bag lunches for the children of our community. These lunches are distributed through our food pantry and are needed during the summer. Our group also participates with Church Women United to collect and distribute school supplies to children in our community who need them. We are privileged to serve our Lord in so many ways in our church and community. Submitted by Linda Aide

Southwest Conference Spring Gathering was held Saturday, April 22, 2017 at First English Lutheran Church in Platteville. Brunch at 9:00 was followed by roll call, reports, and elections. The ladies of the conference then shopped at the Fair Trade Marketplace hosted for the community of Platteville by the ladies of First English Lutheran. Hymns, devotions, and Fair Trade program topics were presented including updates and information on UPAVIM, SERRV, BeadforLife, and Lifting Families out of Poverty. In-kind gift items were collected by the participants for the Hospice and Newborn Kits to be taken to Synod Assembly. The monetary offering was sent to Global Health Ministries for shipping costs and the South Central Synodical treasury. The morning was enjoyed by all attendees. St. John's Lutheran, Boscobel will be the 2018 Spring Gathering host. Submitted by Suzanne Bartels

St. Peter's Loganville Sometimes we forget that basic necessities in life are not always a given for everyone. The women of St. Peter's Lutheran Church have given hundreds of quilts to various charities over the years. A local charity called Touched Twice, a program to help families before the school year starts, is held in Reedsburg every August. Last year 175 quilts were donated for this one-day event to anyone requesting a quilt. Needless to say, we ran out of quilts by noon and so many kids went without that day. This year, we want everyone who requests a quilt to receive one.

The women of St. Peter's Loganville making these quilts have dwindled reflecting a decrease in the number of quilts made each year. The question became how to involve others in the church community. It was decided to make a very fun "string" quilt enticing anyone willing to sit and sew for a day to join us. "St. Peter's Creative Christians" held a one day sit and sew on April 8th with 13 sewing machines humming away making string quilt blocks. We had 23 participating (aged 7 to 91) and made a total of 30 quilt tops, tied fleece blankets and tied sandwiched quilts that day. In fact, so much fun was had, we'll likely repeat the event to keep the growing sewing interest. This is just one of the many charities quilts are given throughout the year. Fellowship and community continue to be touched by the grace of God. St. Peter's Creative Christians rock! Submitted by Nancy Schuette

Women of Perry have had a busy spring, we have completed 200 quilts for the missions, now working on the other kits. May is a busy month honoring our Sunday School Staff, Graduating Seniors and Serving our Annual Memorial Day Dinner, which served around 200. June and July are the months we have to celebrate summer with the Summer Soltis Campfire. We help support the Bible School Program and other students going onto Bible Camps. We will be busy getting ready for our Bazaar held in November. We hope everyone enjoys summer and looks forward to fall for another season and year ahead. Submitted by Janis Hiltbrand

Barneveld Conference Spring Gathering was held at Grace Lutheran Church in Dodgeville on April 22. Thirty-four women and men attended. Rev. Mae Jean Zelle and Rev Nick Utphall, on behalf of The Care of God's Creation synod ministry team, brought us a program explaining global warming and gave us ways to take action. This program is well worth the time. Eighteen baby blankets for Global Health Ministries and 22 Food Pantry items were collected as an in-kind offering. These offerings will be repeated next year. A $403 cash offering was split between World Hunger and Women of the ELCA. Jane Harrison brought us news from the Synodical Board and an update on the Triennial Gathering in Minneapolis. The next Spring Gathering will be April 7, 2018, in Richland Center. Submitted by Betsy Baguhn

UPAVIM FIFTH YEAR OF UPAVIM BILINGUAL PROGRAM IS GOING STRONG

Exciting things are happening this year, making the program stronger and helping students reach their goal of learning English as a second language. We need to raise $12,000 to keep the doors open in 2018 and continue providing quality services to the young minds of UPAVIM. Every year we raise money to support UPAVIM and the costs incurred specifically by keeping the school open for a full day to provide Montessori style teaching and immersive English classes. The costs include materials, books and supplies used in class by the students, stipends for the volunteer English teachers, a fund for special events and educational excursions for the children and training expenses for both English teachers and the Guatemalan teaching staff. The UPAVIM school is now in its 5th year of the full-fledged, full day bilingual program.

Last year the students were so excited to move into their new spacious classrooms and this year the teachers are taking advantage of the extra space and materials to provide a more enriching education to their learners! The students are excited to speak in English and love singing songs in English. The older students are working on important projects such as identifying their dream jobs and mapping out ways to successfully reach their goals. The group of native English-speaking volunteers and the dedicated Guatemalan teaching staff are working hand in hand to provide quality education and hope for a better future to the students of UPAVIM. Please consider supporting education and the opportunity for a better life for the UPAVIM students and their families! Donate to the UPAVIM bilingual school and make a difference in the lives of so many young learners.

UPAVIM MISSION TRIP - COME AND SEE As a previous participant commented "My life at UPAVIM was absolutely life changing for me". Another commented "The women were an inspiration. They had so little, yet gave so much. They were never without a smile and a hug." You too can feel this way as you journey to our synodical mission project and meet with these women. We are putting together a ten-day trip for February 2018. Besides staying a few days at UPAVIM, we will also travel to other women's cooperatives and learn about these organizations as well as Guatemalan culture. Besides visiting several communities around Lake Atitlan, we will spend part of a day in historic Antigua. Stop by our triennial booth to receive information and express your interest. If you have any questions, please contact Jane Harrison Jane788082@yahoo.com.

UPAVIM WHEN YOU EMPOWER WOMEN YOU GROW A COMMUNITY UPAVIM strives to provide opportunities for women to recognize their potential and to create a better life. They believe that when women acknowledge their own capabilities and have the space and structure to develop their own talents, they begin to empower themselves. One way you can help is to visit our synodical sponsored UPAVIM booth at the Triennial. They will have many new items for sale. Another way is to offer items on consignment at an event at your church. Fall is a great time to host this with our many festivals. Items will also be available at our synodical biennial convention September 22-23. Help make a difference in the lives of many.

Bishop Mary Froiland – Worship Sermon

The Reverend Mary Froiland was elected Bishop of the South-Central Synod of Wisconsin on September 28, 2013. She served most recently as the pastor of Luther Valley Luther Church in Beloit, WI, from 2000 to 2013. Bishop Froiland earned a Bachelor of Arts degree in English and Philosophy from Augsburg College in Minneapolis, MN, in 1979, and a Master of Divinity degree from Luther Theological Seminary in St. Paul, MN, in 1985. Mary and her husband, the Reverend John Froiland, live in Edgerton, WI. They are the parents of three adult children and happy grandparents of Isaac and Elsa.

Churchwide Women of the ELCA Representative

– The Reverend Gwendolyn King

The Reverend King was elected to the Women of the ELCA churchwide board in July, 2011, and re-elected in July, 2014. She served as chair of the constitutional review committee and was worship leader for churchwide Today's Dream: Tomorrow's Reality (TDTR) training. After thirty years of ordained ministry in a wide variety of settings, she now serves as a supply pastor within the ELCA's Southeastern Pennsylvania Synod and the Episcopal Diocese of Pennsylvania. Gwen served as a chaplain in the U.S. Air Force Reserves for many years, retiring at the rank of colonel, the first African American woman to do so in the U.S. Air Force Chaplaincy. In her local congregation, Calvary Lutheran Church in West Chester, PA, she participates in ecumenical outreach ministry to homeless women, in youth mission through Appalachian Service Project, and her synod's Anti-Racism and Racial Justice Advocacy Team. Gwen has been honored to serve on the executive board of Women of the ELCA. She knows that this women's organization makes a difference in God's kingdom and among God's people. When women are empowered locally, nationally, and globally to live out the gospel, speak out for justice, use our gifts and resources, study God's word, and are open to the living presence of God's Spirit in their lives, we become instruments of God's love and grace.

Luther's Impact on Church and Society

– The Reverend Brad Pohlman (Keynote speaker)

The work and writing of Martin Luther had wide ranging impact on the church and society both in Germany and throughout the world. We will look at some of the major impacts of Luther and the Reformation and ask questions about his impact today.

Reformation Places: A pictorial view of Luther's Reformation (Workshop #1)

– The Reverend Brad Pohlman

We will look at some of the major places of the reformation to better understand Luther. We will see the Wartburg Castle, Wittenberg, and other important sites that shaped the Protestant Reformation. The Rev. Brad Pohlman currently serves as senior pastor of Luther Memorial in Madison, where he has been on staff for over 10 years. Prior to his current position, he served on staff of the South-Central Synod of Wisconsin, ELCA coordinating interim ministry. As part of Brad's work in the synod, he served 11 different congregations as an interim pastor. Brad has also led several trips to Germany in areas rich in the history of Martin Luther and J.S. Bach.

Behavioral Finance – Beliefs not Budgets (Workshops #1 & #3)

– Jennifer Prinz

Financial wellness is more than budgets, balance sheets or investment portfolios. Our emotions and money beliefs greatly impact our financial decisions. The field of Behavioral Finance helps us identify these beliefs and understand why we flourish or struggle with money. This workshop is designed to help you understand the impact your emotions have on your financial decisions, identify how to align your values with your financial decisions, learn how to begin to change "beliefs" that do not help you meet your financial goals, and review resources and ideas that support manageable next steps. Jennifer Prinz is Portico Benefit Services' regional representative covering the ELCA Region 5 (Iowa, Illinois, Wisconsin, and Upper Peninsula of Michigan). Portico Benefit Services provides health, flexible spending, retirement, disability, and survivor plans to rostered and lay leaders. Jennifer has more than 25 years of communications and relationship-building experience, in both faith-based and health care organizations. She previously worked for the ELCA Foundation. She recently moved to Waverly, Iowa, where her husband is an ELCA Pastor at St. Paul's Lutheran Church and School.

Bob Lindmeier is the Chief Meteorologist at WKOW-TV in Madison and has been presenting the weather for the past 37 years. Bob holds a Bachelor of Science Degree in Meteorology from UW-Madison. Bob is a member of the South-Central Synod of Wisconsin's Care for God's Creation team.

Healing & Forgiveness (Workshops #1 & #2)

– The Reverend Kelli Fisher

Come and discuss how we as Christians are called to forgive those who differ in religion, politics, age, sexual orientation, ethnic background, ... (you get the idea). We are called to forgive and that's hard enough, but then there is the healing that is needed personally and corporately. How does this happen? (I don't have the answer, so be ready to leave with more to think about than a definitive answer.) The Reverend Kelli L. Fisher has been serving God's people as an ordained pastor for 27 years. Pastor Kelli has worked with God's children in congregations in the Upper Peninsula of Michigan, Minnesota and Wisconsin and as a hospital chaplain in Ohio. She is currently working with her sisters and brothers in Christ at Perry Lutheran Church in Daleyville.

Katie Luther, the runaway nun (Workshops #2 & #3)

– Janna Smith

This session will focus on Katharina von Bora, the woman who first proposed marriage to Martin Luther. He was reluctant at first, but by all accounts, it was a happy marriage. He called her 'my darling' and 'my morning star of Wittenberg' as well as the 'boss of Zulsdorf' (their farm) and 'Herr Käthe' (Lord Kathy). By his adversaries, she was referred to in less exalted terms...a 'vestal virgin' and a 'cloister whore.' Regardless, Katie Luther was a remarkable woman. In 1552, she is reported to have said on her deathbed, "I will stick to Christ as a burr to cloth." Janna Smith, secretary of the South Central Wisconsin Synodical Women's Organization board, lived in Germany for seven years with her husband, a U.S. military officer, and recently returned from a trip this spring to the Wartburg near Eisenach with her high school students. After teaching for 40 years, she has recently retired as a library media specialist in the Elkhorn Area School District.

My Super Power is Invisibility (Transition Education Program) (Workshops #1 & #2)

– Jani Koester

Working with students that are experiencing homelessness is challenging and rewarding. On a daily basis, our students and families face barriers to housing, racism, human trafficking, and the simple challenges of survival. Knowing that education is a key to moving forward in our society, the McKinney-Vento federal law gives guidance and support to schools to help students experiencing homelessness with access to education. Supporting about 1500 students who have experienced homelessness in the Madison Schools brings many opportunities for conversations, support and interventions. These students often feel invisible and alone. Building awareness and support in our communities is key to connecting them with a future. Jani Koester has been a TEP Resource Teacher in the Madison Transition Education Program since March of 1989. Before that, she was a Special Education Teacher for 7 years in Polo, Illinois. She actively supports 4K - 12 programs in the Madison schools. These supports include: identification, enrollment, after school, summer school programming, community outreach, shelter connections, advocacy within the district and without the district, and professional development. One of her favorite projects is the "Who We Are" program that provides students experiencing homelessness an opportunity to share their voices. At this event students get to know each other, share common experiences, participate in a community art project and collaborate in writing for a book about "Who They Are."

Our Piece in the Racism Puzzle (Workshops #2 & #3)

– Mary Nervig

Racism is an ugly word! As followers of Jesus, who loved the whole world, that label is not one that we find personally descriptive of ourselves. This workshop is an invitation to explore our unintentional participation in practices and perspectives that have foundations in distinctions based on concepts of race and the “other.” Our piece in the racism puzzle is complicated and the journey to become intentionally “anti-racist” begins with self-awareness. Mary Nervig is a member of the Synod Racial Equity/Anti-racism Team. As a mother of 3 adult biracial African American children and 1 white sibling to these 3, Mary has participated as a learner about the impact of racism for the past 40 years, mostly through life experience but also as a participant at numerous anti-racism training events.

Protecting Yourself from Fraud (Workshops #1, #2, & #3)

– Detective Clay Lins

Fraud and identity theft is considered to be one of the fastest growing crimes in the country. Identity theft alone affects approximately nine to ten million Americans each year. Many of these frauds are difficult for law enforcement to investigate after the fact because many of these frauds are conducted from overseas. Detective Lins will present ideas to help you protect your identity and money from fraud. Detective Clay Lins has been a deputy for the Sauk County Sheriff's Department since 2003. In 2007 he was promoted to detective. Since that time Detective Lins has handled the majority of the fraud cases investigated by the Sauk County Sheriff's Department. He graduated from Edgewood College in 2002 with a bachelor's degree in Criminal Justice and a minor in Psychology.

UPAVIM Mission Trip (Workshop #3)

– Jane Harrison

COME AND SEE - In 2006, our synodical organization voted to sponsor UPAVIM (United for a Better Life) for our mission project after hearing how these indigenous women living on the outskirts of Guatemala City pulled themselves up with hope to create a cooperative for employment with the help of an American nurse, Barbara Lorraine. Consider a visit to help with their many projects, see where and how they live, and visit other women's co-ops in remote areas of the country where few Americans have gone. We'll leave Wisconsin behind in February and travel to Guatemala where sunshine awaits us in the dry season. Temperatures are 75-80 degrees in the daytime and 45-50 at night. We will be gone for ten days. More details will be available at the workshop. Since meeting the founder of UPAVIM in 1995, Jane Harrison has traveled to Guatemala eight times to help lead a mission trip and/or help at the co-op. She finds these women an inspiration and full of hope. She has learned the meaning of giving from these sisters in Christ who have so little but are willing to share much.

Women & Incarceration (Workshops #1 & #2)

– The Reverend Christa Fisher

Did you know that the rate of incarceration among women has grown by 700% in the past twenty years? Did you know that women and men are arrested and incarcerated for different reasons? Do you know what sort of impact the escalating rate of incarceration of both men and women is having on children, families and communities? In this session, which will mimic jail-style worship, you will receive answers to these and other questions. You will learn about the unique experience of being an incarcerated woman and the ways in which the Jail Ministry support women during and following release from jail. The Reverend Christa Fisher is the Chaplain at the Dane County Jail. She officially assumed this position in September, 2015, after graduating from Wartburg Seminary. While a seminary student, Christa served as a chaplain intern and later as a substitute chaplain. She is the grant administrator for the Backyard Mosaic Women's Project, an art-based spirituality group for incarcerated and formerly incarcerated women. Christa began the Sisterhood of Saints and Sinners, a worshipping community for women with histories of incarceration and she continues to lead projects which help identify and heal both victims and perpetrators of human trafficking.

Luther Rose Trivet

Lutherans are commemorating the 500th anniversary of the Reformation year. The Reformation is the theme of our upcoming women's Biennial Convention. The SWO board has a limited supply of Luther rose trivets available for purchase ($15) during the Biennial Convention. The Luther rose, also known as the Luther seal, was designed for Martin Luther at the request of John Frederick of Saxony in 1530, while Luther was staying at the Coburg Fortress during the Diet of Augsburg. Luther saw the seal as an expression of his theology and faith. He used it to authorize his correspondence. The Luther rose featured on the trivet is from a stained glass church window in Cobstadt, Thüringen, Germany. The trivet measures 6" x 6" and can be used as a hot plate holder. Checks may be made payable to Women of the ELCA.

Biennial Convention Resolutions & Nominations

One very important way for you to get something you want accomplished through the Synodical Women's Organization is to submit a RESOLUTION to the 2017 Biennial Convention.

The goal of a resolution is to inform and educate readers so that they are inspired to take action and approve the resolution. Therefore, it should have a clear, concise title and address only one issue. A RESOLUTION begins with a WHEREAS. After you have written one or more WHEREAS... you will complete the resolution with: THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED .. AND BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED... The WHEREAS is the current situation. The RESOLVED is the action part of what you want to do for your issue/cause to make a difference.

The Nominating Committee is searching for ladies to answer God's call to serve on the board of the South Central Wisconsin Synodical Women's Organization (SWO) of the Women of the ELCA. We need ladies with different gifts and backgrounds to act boldly on their faith in Jesus Christ. At this year's Biennial Convention we will be electing board members, secretary, and a new treasurer to two (2) year terms. You can encourage another woman or nominate yourself.

Board Member – Attend five (5) board meetings annually usually on Saturday; serve as a liaison to a conference by assisting as needed to plan and attending their gathering(s) and presenting information from the board; represent one of the mission areas (Discipleship, Stewardship, or Justice) and submit articles on the programs for issues of the Trumpeter; help in planning the next Biennial Convention.

Treasurer – Attend five (5) board meetings annually usually on Saturday; present a financial report at board meetings; receive offerings and submit them to churchwide Women of the ELCA; record and pay expenses as decided by the board; arrange for the annual financial review. Knowledge of Quick Books is helpful. The Treasurer term officially begins February 1, 2018. There is opportunity to learn from our current Treasurer, Donna Peterson, who has completed the maximum of 2 terms.

Secretary – Attend five (5) board meetings annually usually on Saturday; record and distribute meeting minutes; assist with keeping an accurate register of active congregational units and contact women; help in planning the next Biennial Convention.
