

South-Central Synod of Wisconsin

Dear friends in Christ,

This past October rostered leaders throughout the South-Central Synod gathered under the theme “Building, Learning, Growing.” While we were gathered, the Rev. Kerri Parker of the Wisconsin Council of Churches led us in a visioning process to help us uncover our values. In a summary of the process Rev. Parker made some observations:

- Prayer and scripture matter to us. We need to attend to the whisperings of the Spirit and be the Church.
- We desire to be collaborative.
- We have an energy for change and boldness.
- It feels good to Breathe, Bless, Dream, Share, Thrive and have Fun....

These ring true to me as I think about this past year and as we plan for 2024. 2023 continued to bring challenges to the church, to our synod, and for many of our congregations. At the same time, we continued to trust and know that our God is our sure foundation. Our God is the source of all that we are. Lutheran Christians are anchored in God’s grace and we walk by faith and prayer guided by the Holy Spirit. I am honored to have walked with and alongside of many of you in conversation this past year as we’ve counted on God to show up and be with us.

This past year also brought new collaboration around the synod. Congregations are in conversation with each other and with their neighborhoods about how best to share the love of Jesus. New partnerships are being born demonstrating that God is active. We are learning and growing as we trust in God’s promises. As Matthew 13:31-34 reminds us, even a seed as tiny as a mustard seed grows into something mighty and beautiful in God’s hands. God is growing beautiful ministries and relationships around the South-Central Synod.

We continue to step out in faith in this new post-pandemic world. We are changing and wondering even as we are certain of God’s steadfast promise of love through Jesus Christ. We are being bold to dream and to share with one another. We are being courageous enough to sit back and breathe. We are daring to thrive and we are having fun.

I am grateful to you. I am grateful for the generosity you pour into this synod. Your financial gifts make a difference. Your gifts of service make a difference. Your gifts of prayer and encouragement make a difference. Your ministry, wherever God is leading you, makes a difference. Thank you!

Have a blessed annual meeting.

Your partner in Christ,

Bishop Joy Mortensen-Wiebe
